

Kunsthhaus Bregenz: KUB Billboards Display a Love of Life and Optimism

New KUB Billboards under the motto “Art that is Unforgettable” bring KUB’s history back to life

Bregenz, April 17, 2020 – Art that is unforgettable. The new KUB Billboards along Seestraße in Bregenz are displaying snapshots of artists from over 23 years of KUB’s history, demonstrating a commitment to a love of life and the power of art.

“Art that is Unforgettable,” is the concept behind photographs adorning KUB Billboards in the center of Bregenz since Thursday, April 16. They are snapshots from over 23 years of exhibitions at KUB, images that exude a love of life and positive energy, depicting various artists in and around the KUB building, including the renowned artist Lawrence Weiner kissing his wife Alice (2016), the musicians of Ensemble Pagon during the anniversary exhibition Peter Zumthor – Dear to Me (2017), the artists’ group gelitin’s striking public appearance in 2006, Maurizio Cattelan sitting above the entrance to Kunsthhaus Bregenz (2008), Bunny Rogers on the roof of Kunsthhaus Bregenz (2019), and the artist Mariko Mori with her work WAVE UFO (2002).

The new Billboards are on view along Seestraße in Bregenz until summer 2020.

Press photographs are available for download at kunsthaus-bregenz.at/press/kub-billboards/art-that-is-unforgettable

Attachment

photographs: KUB Billboards, 2020, Markus Tretter © Kunsthhaus Bregenz

We look forward to seeing your coverage of KUB Billboards!

Yours sincerely
Stay Safe